DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 21-36 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to Claim 21, the prior art made of record (US 5,035,148) teaches two diaphragms are connected by a portion that is thicker than the first diaphragm (see Figs 31 and 32), but fails to explicitly teach and lacks reasonable motivation for placing the first strain gauges on the first diaphragm and the second strain gauges on the second diaphragm. Claims 22-30 depend either directly or indirectly on Claim 21.

With respect to Claim 31, the prior art made of record (US 6,595,063) discloses the angle between #3 & #1 as being greater than the angle #4 & #2; however, these angles are not angles of curvature (as required by Claim 31). Prior art (US 6,523,423) discloses a similar strain sensor, however the angle of curvature of the first connecting portion is equal to the angle of curvature of the second connecting portion (see Fig. 1b, wherein #2 is the force receiving portion, and #3 is the fixed portion). Claim 32 depends on Claim 31.

With respect to Claim 33, the applicant's arguments are found to be persuasive (see Arguments, page 13, para. 1); the prior art made of record fails to reasonably suggest modifying a well known strain sensor in the art (see PTO-892 and Applicant's Admitted Prior Art) to have the strain gauge closer to the force receiving portion be shorter than the strain gauge closer to the fixed portion. Claim 34 depends on Claim 33.

With respect to Claim 35, while strain sensors comprising a fixed portion, a force receiving portion, and an interconnecting portion comprising two diaphragms with respect strain gauges thereon are well known in the art (See US 5,035,148); there is no explicit teaching or reasonable suggestion for having the first diaphragm (closer to the force receiving portion) be shorter in length than the second diaphragm (closer to the fixed portion). Claim 36 depends on Claim 35.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
